NOTICE OF MOTION SEEKING COURT ORDERED PSYCHOLOGICAL
EVALUATION OF DEFENDANT DAVID
GEORGE SWEIGERT

Please take notice, pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 35(a), Jason Goodman (“Goodman” or “Plaintiff”), by and for himself pro se, will move this honorable Court for an order seeking mandatory psychological evaluation of defendant David George Sweigert (“Sweigert” or “Defendant”). Sweigert’s persistent harassment and cyberstalking of Goodman and his family, despite the existence of a pending motion seeking to enjoin him from such activity, coupled with his own historical statements about his personal family history of serious mental illness, and his obsessive pursuit of Goodman with abusive, vexatious, and frivolous litigation, call into question his mental fitness to represent himself and participate in a trial in this legal action.

Case No.: 1:21-cv-10878-AT-JLC

MEMORANDUM IN SUPPORT OF MOTION SEEKING COURT ORDERED
PSYCHOLOGICAL EVALUATION OF
DEFENDANT DAVID GEORGE
SWEIGERT

Jason Goodman (“Goodman”), by and for himself pro se, respectfully moves the Court for an order granting a mandatory psychological evaluation of defendant David George Sweigert (“Sweigert”) pursuant to FRCP Rule 35(a). Sweigert has repeatedly demonstrated his callous disregard for this Court’s inherent authority and inappropriately interfered in matters of civil litigation against Goodman beginning in 2017 (See Steele et al v Goodman et al Case 3:17-cv-00601-MHL Document 51). Sweigert has obsessively pursued Goodman since then. Despite a pending motion to enjoin him against such action, Sweigert has persisted in cyber stalking and harassing Goodman, his family members, and associates. Considering these factors along with his own public statements against interest about a troubling family history of severe mental illness, physical and psychological abuse, Sweigert’s mental fitness to represent himself or participate in this action is in controversy.

MEMORANDUM IN SUPPORT OF MOTION SEEKING COURT ORDERED
PSYCHOLOGICAL EVALUATION OF DEFENDANT DAVID GEORGE SWEIGERT - 1

1 like reports of all earlier examinations of the same condition. Goodman has no access to any
2 such reports giving rise to the need for this Court to mandate an examination.

3 PERSISTENT EXTRAJUDICIAL HARASSMENT

5 On February 1, 2023, after filing a motion for a preliminary injunction against
6 Sweigert and in the course of his normal business, Goodman broadcast a video on YouTube
7 titled Charles Ortel is CLOSING IN – Seven Bribes for Seven Losers a Charles Ortel John
8 Cullen Mash Up. The video addressed allegations of inappropriate handling of classified
9 information by President Joe Biden and his son Hunter Biden. This topic has been at the 10 center of major news stories and cannot be dismissed as “conspiracy theory”.
11 (<https://www.nytimes.com/2023/02/01/us/politics/fbi-biden-rehoboth.html>). Members of the 12 public including Sweigert are free to disagree with or object to opinions expressed in 13 Goodman’s broadcasts, but the First Amendment of the Constitution inarguably grants
14 Goodman and his guests the unalienable right to freely share opinions relating to these and 15 other matters. The First Amendment does not grant Sweigert free reign to harass or 16 antagonize Goodman or private individuals including Goodman’s family and associates.

18 Plaintiff asks the Court to take notice that the co-hosts Charles Ortel (“Ortel”) and 19 John Cullen (“Cullen”) are both trusted associates of Goodman who are not guilty of any 20 wrongdoing in this matter but have been discussed in this action previously. Ortel was 21 originally brought to the Court’s attention because Goodman believes he was the target of a
22 plot hatched by defendants including Sweigert, his brother George Webb Sweigert (“Webb”),
23 Christopher Bouzy (“Bouzy”) and Benjamin Wittes (“Wittes”). Likewise, Cullen was the co-
24

1 host on the broadcast at the center of controversy in litigation Goodman alleges was
2 wrongfully fomented by Sweigert and subsequently brought by defendant Adam Sharp
3 (“Sharp”) in which he was represented by defendant Margaret Esquenet (“Esquenet”). These 4 facts are relevant because Sweigert repeatedly demonstrates his extraordinarily obsessive
5 motivation to disrupt any broadcast with these and other associates of Goodman. Even now,
6 Sweigert persist in his harassment despite the possibility of a pending sanction and the high
7 probability that such behavior could make an injunction even more likely. A reasonable 8 observer would be likely to conclude a mentally stable person facing an injunction would 9 curtail this activity pending resolution of the motion so as not to further aggravate the Court.
10

12 During the February 1 broadcast, an audience member participating in the real-time
13 chat began posting harassing comments utilizing a YouTube account with the name Jason
14 Goodman is a Useful Idiot (“Useful Idiot”) (EXHIBIT A). YouTube account information
15 reveals this account was created on January 26, 2023, (EXHIBIT B) coincident with service
16 of process upon defendants Wittes and Nina Jankowicz (“Jankowicz”). Based on public
17 comments made by the Useful Idiot, and Sweigert’s cumulative actions over the past six 18 years, Goodman alleges this account was created by Sweigert or someone acting on his 19 behalf with the sole intent of harassing Goodman. If Goodman’s allegation is correct, this 20 would also demonstrate a modus operandi Goodman alleges Sweigert employed in creating a
21 pseudonymous email account with the specific intent of alerting Sharp and defendant
22 Academy of Television Arts and Sciences (“ATAS”) to an alleged copyright infringement
23 that provided a pretext for sham litigation against an uninvolved dormant corporation owned 24
25
26
27

1 by Goodman, Multimedia System Design, Inc. (“MSD”)

2 ONGOING CYBER STALKING AND CYBER HARASSMENT

4 On or about January 24, 2023 the website <https://www.sdney.org/> was permanently
5 deleted due to repeated violations of host provider Wix.com’s terms of service which 6 disallow harassment, See <https://www.wix.com/about/terms-of-use> rule 2.3 2. The site had
7 previously been maintained by Sweigert and used primarily to defame and harass Goodman
8 and intimidate his associates. Undeterred by this or pending action by the Court, Sweigert
9 continues to cyberstalk and harass Goodman using a Twitter account (“@LiberateYoutube”).
10

11 In addition to harassing Goodman’s family members, @LiberateYoutube continues to 12 publish false and defamatory statements about Goodman. After Goodman filed a motion
13 seeking a preliminary injunction based on Sweigert’s behavior, he continued to display
14 apathetic disregard for the authority of this Court or possible consequences of the well-
15 founded motion. On January 31, 2023, via Twitter, Sweigert posted a message mocking
16 Goodman and further harassing and antagonizing Goodman’s father. (EXHIBIT C). This 17 again calls Sweigert’s grasp on reality and understanding of consequences into controversy.
18

20 Sweigert continuously and relentlessly harasses Goodman with defamatory and 21 patently false statements intended to impugn Goodman’s reputation for truthfulness as a 22 journalist. On February 2, 2023, Sweigert published a tweet directed at defendant Bouzy and 23 the Brookings Institution among others in which he alleged Goodman had faked claims
24 related to awards granted to him by the International 3D Society (“I3DS”). (EXHIBIT D)
25

26 The I3DS is a defunct Hollywood association of professionals in the motion picture
27

1 industry who specialized in stereoscopic production. Goodman is widely recognized as one
2 of the world's leading experts in the field and was in fact granted two awards for technology
3 development in 2013. (EXHIBIT E)

5 SWEIGERT'S MENTAL CONDITION IS IN CONTROVERSY

6 These baseless attacks on Goodman's family members and personal integrity, coupled 7 with Sweigert's relentless dedication to harassing Goodman demonstrate a total lack of 8 civility on Sweigert's part and call his mental fitness and ability to participate as a self-
9 represented litigant in this action into controversy. Sweigert presents himself to the Court as 10 a legitimate mentally fit litigant, however Goodman disagrees. This motion and the facts
11 described herein provide good cause to at least substantiate controversy in this regard.

13 Sweigert's behavior indicates brazen disregard for the authority of this Court and 14 contradicts common sense and common decency. Even if Sweigert or any other person were 15 driven into blinding rage as a result of contentious litigation, the filing of a motion seeking a 16 preliminary injunction would be likely to cause a mentally fit litigant to at least pause the 17 behavior in question pending resolution of the motion. Sweigert's failure to do this at least 18 raises controversy with respect to his psychological condition and mental fitness as a litigant.
19 Sweigert's behavior can only be reasonably explained as that of an extremely desperate or 20 mentally ill individual with no understanding of consequences.
21

22 The publicly accessible online Consumer Version of the Merck Manual offers a
23 medical definition of Antisocial Personality Disorder provided by Dr. Mark Zimmerman,
24 MD, of the Rhode Island Hospital. The article states in relevant part, "Antisocial personality
25
26
27

1 disorder is characterized by a pervasive pattern of disregard for consequences and for the
2 rights of others.” (https://www.merckmanuals.com/home/mental-health-

4 disorder#:~:text=Antisocial%20personality%20disorder%20is%20characterized,for%20the%
5 20rights%20of%20others). Dr. Zimmerman goes on to explain, “Doctors diagnose antisocial
6 personality disorder based on symptoms, including disregard for consequences and for the 7 rights of others and use of deceit and/or manipulation to get what they want.” Goodman does 8 not claim to be a medical professional or to possess sufficient expertise to diagnose mental
9 illness, however this definition when viewed in comparison to Sweigert’s ongoing behavior
10 provides good cause to question his mental fitness. The statements at least raise controversy
11 with respect to Sweigert’s psychological profile and ability to participate in this legal action.
12

15 GOOD CAUSE EXISTS TO MANDATE AN EXAMINATION

16 After inappropriately attempting to intervene in Steele et al v Goodman et al (See 17 Steele et al v Goodman et al Case 3:17-cv-00601-MHL ECF No. 73) Sweigert initiated legal 18 action against Goodman in the District of South Carolina that was ultimately transferred to 19 this District and presided over by Judge Valerie Caproni (See Sweigert v Goodman 2:18-cv- 20 01633-RMG). Despite allowing his despicable behavior to carry on for more than three 21 years, Judge Caproni ultimately admonished Sweigert when he attempted to overturn a ruling
22 that dismissed the case with prejudice upon Sweigert’s voluntary withdrawal. Despite this,
23 Sweigert continues to file in the now closed case, making the astonishing choice to email
24 chambers irrelevant and scurrilous claims on Christmas Eve 2022. (EXHIBIT F)
25
26
27

28 MEMORANDUM IN SUPPORT OF MOTION SEEKING COURT ORDERED
PSYCHOLOGICAL EVALUATION OF DEFENDANT DAVID GEORGE SWEIGERT - 7

1 Sweigert has demonstrated a pattern and practice by which he voluntarily withdraws
2 vexatious action prior to trial so he can maximize harassment and expense for Goodman but 3 minimize his own exposure to litigation and travel costs or possible sanctions. This was 4 again demonstrated when he brought suit against Goodman's dormant corporation MSD in 5 the MIED (See Sweigert v Multimedia System Design et al Case 2:22-cv-10642-GAD-EAS).

7 Just as Goodman alleges Sweigert planned with Sharp and Esquenet in the National
8 Academy of Television Arts and Science v Multimedia System Design, Inc., this was a
9 transparent attempt to burden Goodman with the financial penalty of hiring counsel to defend 10 the dormant corporation and to prevent Goodman from mounting a pro se defense. Upon 11 appearance of counsel, Sweigert also withdrew that action (See Sweigert v Multimedia 12 System Design Case 2:22-cv-10642-GAD-EAS ECF No. 64). Having learned from prior 13 admonishment, this time Sweigert specifically requested the case be withdrawn without 14 prejudice so he might harass Goodman further with more sham litigation based on the same
15 claims. Like Sweigert's other actions these can only be explained as having been calculated
16 by a malicious vexatious litigant, or otherwise a mentally unfit party. Either explanation
17 provides good cause for a Court mandated psychological examination.
18

21 SWEIGERT'S ADMISSION TO A HISTORY OF MENTAL ILLNESS,
22 PSYCHOLOGICAL AND PHYSICAL ABUSE
23

24 Sweigert has published videos including his own statements against interest in which 25 he provides details about his family history of mental illness including medically diagnosed 26 and pharmaceutically treated schizophrenia. In a video published by Sweigert and subsequently deleted, Sweigert made numerous declarations against his own interest that the Court should accept as true pursuant to FRE Rule 804(b)(3). In the clip previously shared with the Court (https://vk.com/video731682021_456239020) Sweigert states in relevant part “I think this all has to do with my father's illness which I think George inherited if we want to get into medical records and we want to like throw family laundry out maybe I can find some veterans records that shows that my father was treated for schizophrenia by the Veterans Administration. I seem to do I seem to do better maybe all the beatings I took and everything maybe that cured me. I think but as everyone I'm already by guilt by association and I'm just as crazy as George right, there you go.” Sweigert’s own statements about his family history of mental illness are sufficient to at least call his psychological fitness into controversy.
27

CONCLUSION

For the reasons stated herein as well as any other reasons found by the Court, Sweigert should be required to submit to a Court ordered psychological examination or otherwise be sanctioned in any way as determined by the Court.

Pre-motion letter advising the Court of a F.R.C.P. Rule 60(b)(2) or (b)(3) or (b)(6) motion

Your Honor,

Evidence has come to light in the civil trial of Robert David Steele vs. Jason Goodman (3:21-cv-00573-JAG Steele et al v. Goodman, John A. Gibney, Jr, presiding, ED of Virginia) that supposed spoliated video evidence is now available on a YouTube account that Mr. Goodman claimed was “destroyed by the Plaintiff” in this instant action. Recall this video evidence was crucial to support the undersigned’s allegations. At the time, Magistrate Stewart D. Aaron could not review this video evidence as it was claimed to had been spoliated by the undersigned by Mr. Goodman, taking no responsibility. This is a conspiracy theory pushed by Mr. Goodman on his broadcast channels.

In fact, the true status of Mr. Goodman’s YouTube account is the core issue in an appeal he has filed in the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit known as Docket 22-952, Jason Goodman, Counter-Claimant-Counter- Defendant Appellant v. The National Academy of Television Arts and Sciences, Inc., Academy of Television Arts & Sciences, Plaintiffs-Appellees.

Mr. Goodman has now stated his intention in several YouTube videos, to have Elon Musk, as C.E.O. of Twitter, “out” Your Honor as the following:

- An enemy of the state that must be impeached
- Called out for your hatred of the 1st and 4th Amendments to the U.S. Constitution
- Investigated for your conspiratorial alliance with Adam Sharp to weaponize Twitter as a state-controlled propaganda tool

To this end, Mr. Goodman was “hovering” around New York Twitter headquarters for two days broadcasting his desires to make personal contact with Elon Musk and serve him documents to implicate the Court in a conspiracy to take control of Twitter by agents of the F.B.I. On 11/1/2022 the N.Y.P.D. issued a disorderly conduct citation (attached) at Twitter headquarters following Mr. Goodman’s violent outbursts to security staff. According to Mr. Goodman’s own broadcasts the N.Y.P.D. threatened to have emergency medical services confine Mr. Goodman on a psychiatric hold.

During these YouTube tirades Mr. Goodman has brought up the subject of his YouTube channel termination, again and again – without apprising his audience of discoveries made in the Steele v. Goodman lawsuit. The implication is that Your Honor conspired with Adam Sharp to destroy Mr. Goodman’s YouTube channel (which has recently been accessed by the Plaintiff’s attorney in Steele v. Goodman, according to court records).

Furthermore, over two dozen videos that Mr. Goodman claimed were destroyed in this instant litigation have now suddenly resurfaced. Your Honor will recall that Mr. Goodman advised this court – several times – that this video evidence was no longer accessible via the Internet as the channel had been terminated via the actions of the undersigned and that the evidence was destroyed. This is not the case. Now, Mr. Goodman claims that Your Honor had something to do with this evidence spoliation, and broadcasts such conspiracy theories to thousands of election deniers that supported the January 6, 2021 march on the Capitol, in which Mr. Goodman was in attendance.

It is now crystal clear that Mr. Goodman has not only committed fraud upon this Court with his gross misrepresentations of the evidence spoliation; but, is creating a widespread smear campaign to destroy the Court’s reputation.

Other courts have harshly criticized Goodman for his “acrimonious and vexatious litigation practices,” which have extended beyond his principal antagonist to others with nominal involvement and even to Court personnel. See Order Enjoining Defendant From Contacting Court Personnel And Family at 2, Sweigert v. Goodman, No. 22-cv-10002 (E.D. Mich. Feb. 11, 2022), ECF No. 12 (enjoining Goodman from “obtain[ing] the personal cellular and home phone numbers of Court staff and their family members and contact[ing] them outside of Court business hours”); Order Striking Filings at 3, Sweigert v. Multimedia Sys. Design, Inc., No. 2:22- cv-10642-GAD-EAS (E.D. Mich. July 20, 2022), ECF No. 46 (noting that “Goodman continues to engage in this inappropriate behavior in this case, despite the Court’s command that [he] stop making harassing phone calls to Court personnel”).

As Judge Analisa Torres recently observed:

“Goodman is a frequent litigant, and it is at least arguable whether he should continue to receive special solicitude from the Court. Id.; see also ECF No. 82 (adopting R&R, ECF No. 59); ECF No. 59 at 10 n.9; Goodman v. Sharp et al., 21 Civ. 10627 (S.D.N.Y.) (Goodman is a pro se Plaintiff); The National Academy of Television Arts and Sciences, Inc. et al. v. Multimedia System Design, Inc., 20 Civ. 7269 (S.D.N.Y.) (Goodman is a pro se intervenor); Sweigert v. Cable News Network, Inc., 20 Civ. 12933 (E.D. Mich.) (Goodman sought leave to file an amicus brief).” (Case 1:21-cv-10878-AT-JLC Document 83 Filed 12/20/22 Page 2 of 2)

In sum, the time is ripe for the Court to reconsider the issue of evidence spoliation and entertain a motion to set-aside the previous orders of this Court to dismiss this action.

Respectfully,

Pro Se Plaintiff
